HOW HE TOOK HIS VACATION, AND

Now in the sixth month in the 7 1-2 reign of the good caliph. it was so 7 1-2 that Mustapha said: "I am wearied with much work; thought, care and worry have worn me out; I need repose, for the hand of exhaustion is upon me, and death even now lieth at

And he called his physician, who felt of his pulse and looked upon his tongue and said: "Twodollahs!" (For this was the oath by which all physicians awore.) "Of a verity thou must have rest. 20 00 Fee unto the valley of quiet and 20 00 close thine eyes in dreamful rest; hold 19 00 back thy brain from thought and the hand from labor, or you will be a candidate for the asylum in three weeks." And he heard him and went out and put the business in the hands of the again he may be a trapper, perpet-ually shifting his place as the peltry grows scarce. These indicate the

Now, 25 00 his Uncle Ben was a farmer, and abode in the valley of rest, and the mountains of repose rose round about him. And he was rich and well favored, throng of men, who hang about set-tlements with the possible hope of an honest El Dorado, but who in the meantime, and until this shall come, and strong as an ox and healthy as an onion crop. Oftimes he boasted unto his neighbors that there was not a lazy bone in his body, and he swore that he hated a lazy man.

And Mustapha wist not that it was But when he reached his Uncle Ben's they received him with great toll amounting usually to whatever joy, and placed before him a supper of homely viands, well cooked, and piled upon his plate like the wreck of a box-car. And when he could not tier society. The citizen is either "an eat it all they laughed him to scorn. elegant gentlemen" or a liar and a horse-thief. Yet even people of the

And after supper they sat up with him and talked with him about relatives whereof he had never, in all his life, so much as heard. And he answered their questions at random, and lied unto them, professing to know Uncle Ezra and Aunt Beaheds, and once he said he had a letter from Uncle George last week. Now, they all knew that Uncle

George was shot in a neighbor's sheep pen three years ago, but Mustapha wist not that it was so, and he was sleepy, and only talked to fill up the time. And then they talked politics to him, and he hated politics. So about 1 o'clock in the morning they sent him to b.d.

Now the spere room wherein he slept was right under the roof, and there were ears and bundles of ears of seed corn hung from the rafters and he bunged his eye with the same, and he hooked his chin in festoops of he hooked his chin in festoops of by a family with a retinue of cattle, horsest pies and poultry in the barn, dried apples, and shook dried herbs and seeds down his back as he walked along for it was dark.
